ITALIANS, BY NEW VICTORY, DELIVER ANOTHER GALLING BLOW AT AUSTRIA

Rome Reports the Occupation of Doboardo Plateau, Held Obstinate Against Assaults Early in the War.

IMPORTANT STEP TOWARD CLEARING RIVER SALIENT

Fighting Takes Place Some Distance Below Gorizia, Capture of Which Enabled an Advance on Triest in That Region.

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) Rome, Aug. 11, via London, 12 p. m.—The Italians have occupied the entire Doboardo plateau, thus advancing their front.

The Austrians also have captured Romeo and San Martino Del Carso. They have reached the line of the Vajone river. The Austrians have retired to the east of the town of Valdone.

By their new victories the Italians appear to have taken an important step toward clearing the salient formed by the bend of the Isonzo below Gorizia. The Doboardo plateau was the scene of the heavy fighting early in the war, but the Austrians obstinately withheld efforts of the Italians to win this important position. This fighting took place on a front some distance below Gorizia, the capture of which enabled the Italians to push forward in the direction of Triest in this region. San Martino Del Carso is six miles southwest of Gorizia. It is about twenty miles from Triest.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE 5,000 TEUTONS IN TWO DAYS

Paris, Aug. 11, via London, 12 p. m.—In the fighting of Aug. 9-10 more than 5,000 Austrians and Germans were captured, the official statement says today. It follows:

"Five fighting on continuing on the river Stecknitz in the region of Mikolajowice the village of Yubilej Lubuska the little town of Stobrawa and the village of Zarsze. On the river Stecknitz our troops are advancing as result of fierce fighting. The enemy is making a desperate resistance alternating between defensive actions and counter attacks. Notwithstanding the enemy's efforts to stem our advance our gallant troops under General Sankarczoff, by a series of repeated attacks, pushed the enemy out of villages and woods on the right bank of the river, and having reached a ridge commanding the heights, they are fighting before the village of Trzemeszne grove. We took here 4,500 men and the commander of an Austrian regiment with the entire regimental staff and chaplain.

In a westerly direction our troops reached the left bank of the Zlota Lipa, capturing during the engagement the village of Lekarowice and taking over 1,000 Austro-German prisoners. One of our Olszyniec Cosack regiments launched here a cavalry attack, taking more than 200 prisoners and capturing three machine guns.

A German regiment, having crossed the river Zlota Lipa near the village of Zadzim, attempted a counter attack on the position we occupied but was repelled with enormous losses.

Our brave cavalry detachment, having forced the mouth of the river Zlota Lipa, attacked the repelled enemy and pursuing him reached the left bank of the Diester in the bend to the south of the village of Uczenica (southwest of Monasteriskay).

The total number of prisoners taken during the battles of August 9 and 9 amounts to 5,000."

As soon as one passed the first houses and got into the city the aspect of things changed completely. Normal life was resuming its course and if it had not been for the return of the smoke one could see the batteries still proceeding on an unopposed way. The men of the two regiments yelled "wooh" and clapped their hands with enthusiasm. Some of the gamblers fell wounded, but the bridge was passed and our guns began to get near the enemy.

"The spectacle before us was superb. Over an iron bridge our batteries passed at a trot. The Austrian artillery sent towards them white winds of shells, the smoke from which computers almost outshone from time to time. When the smoke blew away one could see the batteries still proceeding on an unopposed way. The men of the two regiments yelled "wooh" and clapped their hands with enthusiasm. Some of the gamblers fell wounded, but the bridge was passed and our guns began to get near the enemy."
